There are two conceptual plans, both involving space in the College Center near the Faculty Commons. The committee has expressed a strong desire to make local pastries available for sale at said café.

Activities is also in the process of reviewing applications and approving new organizations, but is attempting to be selective about org certification, given the VSA’s budgeting constraints. She also serves on the Leadership for Change Committee, and informed Council that its workshop series is well underway.

Preparations are also coming along for Saturday’s MSTRKRFT: Fist of God in UpCDC. ViCE is especially excited for the event, as Vassar is the first college MSTRKRFT will have visited, and the group is supposed to be bringing “a great setup”.
