The Senate, chaired by the President, is comprised of the elected Executive Officers (non-voting) and Class Senators (voting).

* Ranking Members are the senior-most Class Senators in each respective committee. They retain their senatorial rights and are not separately elected.